

Sylvester Stroot

May 3, 1942 - April 8, 2010

EULESS -- Sylvester "Syl" Stroot passed away on April 8, 2010 in Euless, Texas from respiratory problems.

Family will greet friends 9:30 - 11 am, Monday, April 19th at Lucas Hurst Funeral Home. Committal Service: Monday, April 19th, 12:00 noon at Dallas Fort Worth National Cemetery.

Born in Wichita, Kansas, he proudly served the country that he loved in the United States Air Force. Following his military service, he worked for William (Bill) Lear, founder of Learjet. Later, he worked for FlightSafety International from 1967-1980.

In 1980, he joined Combs Gates-Denver as a salesman of pre-owned corporate jets and later with Jack Prewitt & Associates in Bedford, Texas. In 2002, he started an aircraft brokerage business (Stroot Aviation, Inc.) facilitating corporate jet sales worldwide.

He was preceded in his death by both of his parents & grandparents. He is survived by Mary Stroot, their children Carla Dalton and David Stroot, two brothers, two sisters and five grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

LF

“ AS KIDS AT HOME SYL WAS ALWAYS BUSY TEASING US. SOO-O-O WE WOULD GET BACK AT HIM. WHEN HE WOULD ENTER THE ROOM, WE WOULD START YELLING TO MOTHER---MAKE HIM STOP--MAKE HIM STOP MOM-MOM HE'S BOTHERING US AGAIN MOM WOULD COME SYLVESTER WHAT ARE YOU DOING? 3 MONTHS OF DISHES! HAHA!

Louise Falter - April 15, 2010 at 10:30 PM

BM

“ Sweet dreams forever. Hope you're flying high with the angels and watching over us.
Love,
Your little sister.

Barbara Mills - April 15, 2010 at 07:37 PM

RS

“ He wasn't heavy because he was my brother. Rest in peace!

Raymond Stroot - April 15, 2010 at 12:51 PM

FS

“ We will always be grateful for the kind and generous friendship Sylvester shared with our family. His compassion and helpfulness were especially evident to us with Courtney and David's marriage.

Fred & Suellen Self - April 15, 2010 at 11:10 AM