“ Teresa had a unique gift of making you feel comfortable in any situation. Her smile lit up the entire room and her laughter was always genuine and contagious. She loved the little things in life - birds, butterflies, flowers, puppies - that most people take for granted. Her family was so important to her. Once she took you into her heart, you became part of that family forever. Even if you spoke only a couple of times a year, it was like you'd just seen each other the day before. Her love was/IS unconditional. The only one happy about her passing is Leibchen who met her at the Rainbow Bridge. Together they crossed the Bridge into Heaven and took their rightful place at the right hand of the Father. Now, more than ever, I treasure the little 'pearlized' Bible you gave me on May 5, 1990 for my 47th birthday. You had marked a scripture: Job 1:21 "...The Lord gave and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord." You wrote in the front: "Cath, hope all your days will be blessed and that you can be as much a blessing to many others as you have been to me....Trese" Little did you know that YOU were/ARE the blessing!

Thank you for your life and for being my friend, for sharing my joys and sorrows, always knowing the right thing to say.

God must have needed a very special angel well He got the pick of the litter!

*I love you Trese.

“ Teresa always had a beautiful smile for you. I will never forget the blessings she provided while she was alive or the gift I believe she gave me after she went to be with our Lord.
