“ It's strange that even when someone is gone ,you always carry certain memories of them. Terry was much like his father very kind hearted. Life is so short and Terry touched so many hearts. He was a great brother to Val always watching out for her. I thank him for that, he is greatly missed by all. My best memories are of us painting and working on cars, I wish the old times were still here. We'll meet sometime down the road and talk about old times.

“ *One can never understand the way god works. God gives us one so great to love only to take them away. Once again god has taken one of the greatest men anyone could ever have met. As one of my favorites, i can't express how deeply i do miss him. I can't say i agree with the way god works, but i guess uncle Terry's work here on earth was finished and this is why god took him home, only the good die young. I just want to say, i love you uncle Terry, i miss you very much. Until we meet again, you are in my thoughts and mind each and every day, i love you. big hugz n kizzez See you soon :)*

“ Terry was a long time friend to my family and a man that my sister Wendy found much deserved happiness with. He touched the hearts of each of us and was kind and caring in a way that only Terry could. His sense of humour and fun nature made it seem that problems could be managed with a light heart. He is missed and will always be.
