PS

“ Terry Caudle is one of the kindest groovy person I was ever fortunate enough to know, to spend time w/on our oh too brief ride as companions. She was more rock & roll & elegantly cool than words could be written. I miss my friend.

“ Terry, It is so hard to believe that you are not with us in this life. I miss you and only wish that I could have done something to help you. You never leaned on any of us. You were always the one doing the helping. We had had several conversations recently about the boys and how you managed to see that they got a good education. You were an awesome Mom. I know how hard it was because I too am a single Mom. You were constantly affirming your love for them. I know in my heart that you were not ready to set them free and your time was not finished in your heart. Our Lord had a different plan that took you from us all too quickly. The boys know how much you loved them and we all know that your love for them continues in your new life. Even though we can not longer see you or touch you. Each night when I lay down, I think of you and Ryan and Nathan. I pray that I will have the opportunity to help them along at times in your honor. I love them too. They are my nephews and my heart breaks for them. You will never be forgotten and will always be missed. Praise God that he now has you in his loving hands and you no longer suffer. Someday we shall all be reunited with him.
Love, Carole Ann
