

Thomas Smith,

November 30, 1943 - June 6, 2008

ALVARADO -- Thomas W. Smith Sr. passed away at an Arlington hospital Friday, June 6, 2008, after a brief illness. Tom was born in Cortland, N.Y., on Nov. 30, 1943, to Harold Cargill and Flossie Knapp Cargill. He moved to Texas in 1982 and was employed for many years at Southern Star Concrete as a scheduler. Tom was preceded in death by his wife, Lois Smith; daughter, Michelle Smith; and mother, Flossie Cargill. Survivors: Companion, Vicky Neasbitt; father, Harold Cargill of Groton, N.Y.; brothers, Ed Smith of Groton, N.Y. and Jim Cargill of Greeley, Pa.; sister, Sandra Reisen of Greeley, Pa.; son, Thomas W. Smith Jr. of Houston; daughters, Sue Gleason of Cortland, N.Y., and Theresa Allen (Kevin Allen) of Kennedale; grandchildren, Mitchell Gleason, Baylee and Riley Allen; And many extended-family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

CW

“ It saddens me to see such a wonderful man leave us so early. I will always remember my Uncle for his kind words, his laughter, his love for his children, his love for Vicki, and my Aunt Lois. He will be truly missed, and I look forward to the day when I could see him again. I am just sorry I didn't see him before his passing. All my love you Uncle Tom, and may you always be with us in spirit. Love Always, Cindy

Cindy Williams - June 15, 2008 at 03:33 PM

BR

“ He was our Pepaw and will be forever Devi and Duane's', we will hold him in our Hearts for always...Love you Pepaw

Brian & Becky Rawleigh - June 13, 2008 at 01:21 PM

LR

“ Tom was a very special man who will be missed by everyone he touched. We love you Tom.

Lynda & Chris Rawleigh - June 12, 2008 at 11:32 AM