“ Uncle Chick loved his family and took very good care of them, esp. when Aunt Joe got sick...he never left her side. I never saw him upset or heard an angry word from him. Tommie, Lynda and Neil, ya'll are in my prayers and I am so very sorry for your loss. Please remember he is without pain, young again and making that really strong coffee for Aunt Joe again in Heaven. Love ya'll, Cathy Jo

“ I met Tom(Chick) when I was in high school and he married my sister. Since that time he and I have had some great times hunting, fishing, and just talking. To his credit we never had a cross word. He loved God, family, and his country and it doesn't get much better than that. I am confident that he is in a better place now than we are.

“ My brother-in-law, Chick, was a wonderful husband, father grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. In other words he was a very good man. He was intelligent, funny and kind. Our loss is Heavens gain. God-Speed Chick. We love you.
