

Travis Wylie

November 27, 1941 - June 20, 2008

Corinth, MS Travis Lee Wylie, 66 of Corinth, MS formerly of Denton passed away on Friday, June 20, 2008 at Magnolia Regional Health Center. He was born on November 27, 1941 in McKinney to Ralph and Dorothy Wylie. He served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. He attendee the Church of the Nazarene in Texas. He moved to Corinth, MS in 2002 after spending most of his life in Denton. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed gardening. He was a retired fitter welder with Peerless Manufacturing Company. He is survived by his wife Dorothy I. (Fowler) Wylie of Corinth, MS, son, Phillip Wylie and wife Tiffany of Carrollton, granddaughter Jordan Wylie of Carrollton, one brother Ralph Wylie of Royse City, three sisters, Nancy Cooper of Denton, Dorthy K. Wylie and Judy Agado both of Sanger, sisters-in-law, Billie Sue Harden and husband Bill, Diane Wood, and Marilyn Albrecht, brothers-in-law, Jessie Fowler and wife Sue, William Wayne Fowler and wife Lisa and Keith Fowler. He is preceded in death by his parents, two sons, Gary Wylie and Travis Wylie, Jr., two brothers-in-law, Junior Lee Red Fowler and Jack Wood.

Tribute Wall

JW

“ You'll be missed, Pawpaw. I really wish you could still be here to help Grandmama out. She seems lost without you, for sure. I still remember scrubbing your bald head, and being your "Sweetie". I'm sorry I didn't call you guys more, like I promised I would. I love you always, and hopefully I can come visit the gravesite soon.

Jordan Lynn Wylie - July 11, 2008 at 04:13 PM

BB

“ Are we related? My husband's mother was a Wylie. Her brother was Travis Wylie of Sanger. We have family names Gary and Travis Lee? I am sorry for your loss. Bernie Kay Brown 940-391-1842

Bernie Kay Brown - June 22, 2008 at 10:12 AM