“ We were so sorry to hear of Wanda Faye's passing. She was my favorite aunt and we had so much fun growing up. I am her brother Troy's, oldest daughter, Delores. I had no idea she was even ill. I talked to her at my dad's funeral in 2005 and so enjoyed visiting with her. She was the same ol Tinesy as we used to call her. We did not know about her funeral until afterwards, late Saturday evening when we read it in the paper. Both my brother, Stan and I live in Tulsa and would have come if we had known. My sister, Teresa or Ty as she is called now lives in Austin and as bummed as we are at the news. She is the splitting image of Wanda so it has really hit hard. We called Uncle Gene and he filled us in on things. If there is anything I can do for you here in Tulsa, please let me know. I visited her in the mausoleum on Monday this week and laughed and cried with her - many fond memories. I said a prayer for her and hope she will know we cared and never forgot her. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at the sad time but I know she is at peace - we miss her.
