“ I loved being around Bill; he was such a good natured person and so funny! I saw him more when I was a little girl than in later years, but I will miss him.

“ Reflecting back on the 1950's & 60's, I think of carpooling to the Bomber Plant with Bill and others. When it was Bill's turn to drive, it was quite a thrilling trip.

In the middle 1960's Bill often umpired some of the Little League baseball games; which sometimes were quite challenging. But he was fair to both teams. I told him he needed glasses...he would just laugh.

I wasn't around Bill much the last few years, but it was a joy to see and talk to him. He was a good friend and I miss him.
