

William Albrecht

June 9, 1920 - March 18, 2007

Bill was an elder of Riverside Christian Church. He loved all music, especially classical and religious. He attended the Fort Worth Chamber Music Society concerts since their beginning. He was an accomplished violinist. He was best known for his sense of humor and easy going personality. ♂Survivors: Daughters, Fran Adams and her husband, David, Nancy Knox and her husband, Tom, and Ginsy Christman and her husband, Ron; son, Frank Albrecht; sister, Virginia Carter; nine grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Memorials: You may honor Bill with a memorial to Riverside Christian Church.