

William Millar

May 27, 1924 - March 12, 2011

NORTH RICHLAND HILLS -- William G. Millar, a retired U.S. Army major, passed away Saturday, March 12, 2011. Memorial service: 12:45 p.m. Friday in Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery, Dallas. Memorials: In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Honor Flights or simply shake the hand of a soldier and thank him or her for their service to our country. Bill was born in Keller on May 27, 1924. At the age of 17 he enlisted in the Army Air Corps and flew with the 464th Bomb Group in World War II. Bill was preceded in death by his wife, Margaret, and great-granddaughter, Savannah Scholfield.

Survivors: Daughters, Linda Scholfield and husband, Rick, of Lenoir City, Tenn., Treyonne Peart and husband, Randy, of North Richland Hills; grandchildren, Alisa Coppock, David Scholfield and wife, Kim, Catherine Merritt and husband, Logan, all of Tennessee, and Joshua Reed of North Richland Hills; five great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his loyal companion, Lucy.

Tribute Wall

SB

“ I worked with Bill at JCPenny at Northeast Mall in the latter 1970's. He was a wonderful man and always so happy. He always spoke highly of his wife and children. The picture you chose looks exactly as he was when I knew him. My father is buried at DFW Cemetery. It is a beautiful and deserving place for those so dedicated to the service of our country. God Bless you during this difficult time.

Sharon Crowl Bettes - March 17, 2011 at 12:57 PM